We need Medics for our four and five-day sailing and outdoor adventures to support young people after cancer treatment. You don't need any sailing, oncology, or paediatrics experience to join us. We aim to be open, accessible, and inclusive to every young person who has had cancer in the UK.

To believe the Trust is for them, young people must see volunteers like them. If you share these values and can connect with young people today, we want to hear from you.
